Hon'ble Speaker has appointed Shri Ram Dayal as Chairman of the Committee.

Simla-4, the 3rd December, 1954.

No. L. A—109-67/54—The amendments and additions to the Rules of Procedure of Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly which were recommended to the Speaker by the Rules Committee constituted under Rule 156 of the Rules of Procedure were confirmed by the Legislative Assembly in its sitting on the 2nd December, 1954. These will come into force at once and are hereby published for the general information.

1. The Committee has made the following additions to Rules 150 and 151 regarding the constitution of the Public Accounts Committee of our Rules of Procedure by adding two sub-rules namely (5) and (6) to Rule 150 and sub-rule (3) to Rule 151 in order to make the function of the Public Accounts Committee on the lines of those of the Lok Sabha.

150 (5) (a): If the Chairman is for any reason unable to act, the Committee may similarly appoint another Chairman in his place.

(b) If the Chairman is absent from any meeting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairman of that meeting.

150 (6) (a): The Speaker may from time to time issue such directions to the Chairman of the Committee as he may consider necessary for regulating the procedure and the organisation of its work.

(b) If any doubt arises on any point of procedure or otherwise, the Chairman may, if he thinks fit, refer the point to the Speaker whose decision shall be final.

(c) The Committee shall have power to pass resolution on matters of procedure for the consideration of the Speaker who may make such variations in procedure as he may consider necessary.

151 (3): If any money has been spent on any service during a financial year in excess of the amount granted by the Legislative Assembly for that purpose; the Committee shall examine with reference to the facts of each case the circumstances leading to such an excess and make such recommendations as it may deem fit.

(4) The Committee has made deletion of Rules 148 and 149 of the Rules of Procedure regarding the constitution of Finance Committee as this Committee has no function to perform.

5. The Committee has made provisions for constitution of Standing Committees, Committee on Government Assurances and Committee on Sub-ordinate Legislation by adding a new Chapter i.e. Chapter 15 for this purpose and due to this addition subsequent Chapters and clauses of Rules will be renumbered accordingly. The new Chapter 15 reads as under:—

2. The Committee has amended sub-clause (2) and (4) of Clause 150 of the Rules of Procedure regarding the Constitution of Public Accounts Committee in order to bring its working on the lines of those of Lok Sabha. The amended sub-clauses read as under:—

150 (2) (a): The Committee on Public Accounts shall consist of not more than 7 members who shall be elected by the Assembly from amongst its members according to the principle of proportional representation by means of single transferable vote:

Provided that a Minister shall not be appointed to be a Member of the Committee or, if a member, after election to the Committee is appointed Minister, he shall cease to be a member of the Committee from the date of such appointment.

(b) The term of office of Members of the Committee shall be a financial year or so much of the financial year for which they are elected as remains at the time of their election but any member shall be eligible for re-election.

150 (4) (a). The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Speaker from amongst the Members of the Committee:

Provided that if the Deputy Speaker is a Member of the Committee he shall be appointed Chairman of the Committee.

(b) In case of an equality of votes on any matter the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

3. The Committee has added a proviso to sub-rule (2) to Rule 152 which reads as under:—

“Provided that a Minister shall not be appointed to be a member of the Committee, or if a member, after election to the Committee, is appointed a Minister, he shall cease to be a member of the Committee from the date of such appointment.”

CHAPTER XV

(A) Formation of Standing Committees.

153: (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of the first Session of each Assembly, one or more Standing Committees of members may be constituted for the purpose of advising the Government.

(2) Each Committee shall consist of not more than five members excluding the Minister-in-Charge, who shall be member ex-officio. The members shall be elected by the Assembly from amongst its members according to the principle of proportional representation by means of single transferable vote system. The term of office of the Members of the Committee shall be a financial year or so much of the financial year for which they are elected as remains at the time of their election but any member shall be eligible for re-election.

(3) Casual vacancies shall be filled as soon as possible after they occur in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (2) and any person elected to fill such a vacancy shall hold office for so long as the person in whose place he is elected would have held office.

(4) The Minister-in-Charge of the department shall be the Chairman of the Committee, and in the case of equality of votes on any matter, shall have a second or casting vote.

(5) The Government Chief Whip shall ex-officio be a member of each of the Standing Committees.

(6) If at any meeting of the Standing Committee, the Chairman is unable to be present, the members present may elect one of them selves to act as Chairman for that meeting.

(7) An officer in the Ministry or department designated by the Minister-in-Charge shall be Secretary to the Standing Committees.

154. Subject to be laid before the Standing Committees.—The following subjects shall be laid before the Standing Committees:—

- (1) All non-official bills introduced or proposed to be introduced in the Assembly and Legislative proposals which the Ministry concerned intends to undertake;
- (2) Reports of Committees and Commissions on which the Assembly is not adequately represented;
- (3) Major questions of general policy and financial proposals.
- (4) Annual Reports.
- (5) With the approval of the Minister-in-charge any topic of public importance within the field of the Committee which a Member of the Committee may propose for discussion.

155. Functions and Proceedings.—The functions of Standing Committees will be advisory and their proceedings will be strictly confidential. Brief reports of the activities of each Committee mentioning the subjects discussed and conclusions reached by the Committee, but not the tenor of the discussions will be circulated to all members of the Assembly.

156. Summoning of Meetings and Agenda.—Meetings of the Standing Committee will be summoned by the Secretary of the Committee concerned not less than once in a quarter of a year at such times as may be decided by the Minister-in-Charge. The agenda of the meeting will be drawn up and circulated by the Secretary of the Committee concerned together with a memorandum explaining the nature of each item of business and copies of such papers as the Minister-in-Charge directs to be furnished to the Committee. Such papers will be returned by the members to the Secretary at the close of each meeting. The proceedings of the Committee will be confined to items of business entered in the agenda and any request for further information will be dealt with under the orders of the Minister-in Charge.

157. Preparation of Minute.—At a meeting of a Standing Committee, the Secretary of the Committee may be requested by the Minister to explain each item of business. The Chairman will then invite a discussion and the Secretary will then note on the departmental file the general opinion of the Committee.

(B) Committee on Subordinate Legislation

157. Committee on Subordinate Legislation and its Function.—Subject to the provisions of these rules, a Committee on Subordinate Legislation may be constituted to scrutinise and report to the House whether the powers delegated by Legislative Assembly have been properly exercised within the frame work of the statute delegating such powers.

158. Constitution of the Committee on Subordinate Legislation.—(1) The Committee shall consist of not more than five members who shall be nominated by the Speaker.

(2) The term of office of the members of the Committee shall be one year.

(3) The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, discharge a member from the Committee, if such member is absent from two or more consecutive meetings thereof, without the permission of the Chairman of the Committee.

(4) Casual vacancies in the Committee shall be filled by the Speaker and any member nominated to fill such a vacancy shall hold office for the period for which the member in whose place he is nominated would under the provisions of sub-rule (2) have held office.

159. Chairman of Committee on Subordinate Legislation—(1) The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Speaker from amongst the members of the Committee:

Provided that if the Deputy Speaker is a member of the Committee, he shall be appointed Chairman of the Committee.

(2) If the Chairman of the Committee is for any reasons unable to act the Speaker may similarly appoint another Chairman of the Committee in his place.

(3) If the Chairman of the Committee is absent from any meeting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairman of the Committee for that meeting.

(4) In order to constitute a meeting of the Committee the quorum shall be three

(5) In the case of an equality of votes on any matter, the Chairman of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote.

160. Evidence before Committee on Subordinate Legislation.—(1) The Committee on Subordinate Legislation shall have power to require the attendance of persons or the production of papers or records, if such a course is considered necessary for the discharge of its duties:

Provided that if any question arises whether the evidence of a person or the production of a document is relevant for the purposes of the Committee, the question shall be referred to the Speaker, whose decision shall be final:

Provided further that Government may decline to produce a document on the ground that its disclosure would be prejudicial to the safety or interest of the State.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this rule a witness may be summoned by an order signed by the Chairman of the Committee and shall produce such documents as are required for the use of the Committee.

(3) It shall be in the discretion of the Committee to treat any evidence tendered before it as secret or confidential.

(4) No document submitted to the Committee shall be withdrawn or altered without the knowledge and approval of the Committee.

161. Numbering and Publication of Regulation, Rule, Sub Rule Etc.—(1) Each regulation, rule sub-rule by-law, etc. framed in pursuance of the legislative functions delegated by the Legislative Assembly to a subordinate authority and which is required to be laid before the House, hereinafter referred to as 'order' shall, subject to such rules as the Speaker may in consultation with the Leader of the House prescribed, be numbered centrally and published in the Gazette immediately after they are promulgated.

(2) After each such order referred to in rule 161(1) is laid before the House, the Committee shall in particular, consider—

(i) whether it is accord with the general object of the Act pursuant to which it is made ;

(ii) whether it contains matter which in the opinion of the Committee should more properly be dealt within an Act of the Legislature ;

(iii) whether it contains imposition of any tax ;

(iv) whether it directly or indirectly bars the jurisdiction of the courts ;

- (v) whether it gives retrospective effect to any of the provisions in respect of which the Act does not expressly give any such power ;
- (vi) whether it involves expenditure from the Consolidated Fund or the Public Revenue ;
- (vii) whether it appears to make some unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the Act, pursuant to which it is made ;
- (viii) whether there appears to have been unjustifiable delay in publication or laying it before House ;
- (ix) whether for any reason its form or purport calls for any elucidation.

162. Report of the Committee:—(1) If the Committee is of opinion that any order should be annulled wholly or in part, or should be amended in any respect, it shall report that opinion and the grounds thereof to the House within one month of the commencement of a session of the House after the promulgation of such orders or within such earlier or later period which a statute of the House may have fixed for any specified case.

(2) If the Committee is of opinion that any other matter relating to any orders should be brought to the notice of the House, it may report that opinion and matter to the House.

(3) The report of the Committee shall be presented to the House in writing signed by the Chairman of the Committee or, in his absence by any member of the Committee.

(4) The Speaker may issue such directions as he may consider necessary for regulating the procedure in connection with all matters connected with the consideration of any question of Subordinate Legislation either in the Committee or in the House.

163. Provisions applicable in other Respects.—In other respects, the rules applicable to a Legislative Assembly Committee of the House as provided in Chapter XIII of these rules shall apply.

C. Committee on Government Assurances.

164. Function of the Committee.—There shall be a Committee on Government Assurances to scrutinise the assurances, promises and undertakings etc. given by Ministers, from time to time, on the floor of the House and to report on:—

- (a) the extent to which such assurances have been implemented ; and
- (b) where implemented whether such implementation has taken place within the minimum time necessary for the purpose.

165. (1) Constitution of the Committee.—1. The Committee shall consist of not more than five members who shall be nominated by the Speaker.

(2) The term of office of the members of the Committee shall be one year.

(3) Speaker may, if he thinks fit, discharge a member from the Committee, if such member is absent from two or more consecutive meetings thereof, without the permission of the Chairman of the Committee.

(4) Casual vacancies in the Committee shall be filled by the Speaker and any member nominated to fill such a vacancy shall hold office for the period for which the member in whose place he is nominated would under the provisions of such rule (2) have hold office.

166. Chairman of the Committee. (1) The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Speaker from amongst the members of the Committee :

Provided that if the Deputy Speaker is a member of the Committee, he shall be appointed Chairman of the Committee.

(2) If the Chairman of the Committee is for any reason unable to act, the Speaker may similarly appoint another Chairman of the Committee in his place.

(3) If the Chairman of the Committee is absent from any meeting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairman of the Committee for that meeting.

(4) In order to constitute a meeting of the Committee the quorum shall be three.

(5) In the case of an equality of votes on any matter, the Chairman of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) The report of the Committee shall be presented to the House either by the Chairman or on his behalf by any member of the Committee.

167. Provisions applicable in other Respects.—In other respects, the rules applicable to a Parliamentary Committee of its House as provided in Chapter XIII of these rules shall apply.

CHET RAM,
Secretary,

Legislative Assembly, Himachal Pradesh.
